

Both The Recruitment and Employment Confederation (REC) and the Association of Professional Staffing Companies (APSCo) are Associations for Agencies and you can go on their websites to find Agencies nearest to you and in the sectors you are interested in. With over 8000 agencies in the UK, there are too many to list here so we have listed just a selection but for the full range go to their Website and from there you can select agencies closest to your home and who specialise in the sectors you are interested in:
